

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Florida Journal of International Law is a scholarly publication devoted to timely discussion of international legal issues. Its subscribers include legal scholars and practitioners from around the world. The Journal publishes three times a year and is one of four co-curricular journals produced at the University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law. On occasion, the Journal will also have Special Editions that can be purchased in addition to its subscription.

The Journal selects its editorial board and staff from the top ten percent of students at the University of Florida Fredric G. Levin College of Law and from winners of the open write-on competition held once per year.

The Journal enables students to earn academic credit while honing their legal research and writing skills. Recent articles published or accepted for publication have treated subjects as varied as International Trade and Commerce law, Human Rights law, Terrorism, National Security, War Crimes Tribunals, International Environmental law, International Intellectual Property, and Maritime law.
